ABOUT ME

I was born to work in the VFX industry. From small that has been my dream and day to day, I work to achieve it.

I consider myself a friendly person and who values comradeship. Very enterprising and perfectionist. I am grateful for a good work environment to make the most of it.

I love technology, I am passionate about cinema, advertising and design. I try to be up-to-date and find out about the novelties so that the level that the client demands can be.
